Between the Roanoke Christmas parade, the lights at Mill Mountain and family coming in from out of town, the holiday season in the valley is packed. The last thing anyone wants is to house cleaning Roanoke spend the days before Thanksgiving scrubbing bathrooms instead of baking pies. Holiday house cleaning in Roanoke takes that stress off your list, and customer reviews for The Happy Housekeepers specifically mention holiday cleaning as a favorite service.

Holiday cleans focus on the rooms guests use most. The kitchen gets a complete clean-up so it is ready for serious cooking. Bathrooms receive a total clean-up, especially the guest bath that sits unused most of the year. Floors are vacuumed and mopped, furniture dusted or polished and window sills, baseboards, blinds and ceiling fans dusted so the whole house looks ready for company.

Specialized tasks make the biggest impact before a holiday. Cleaning the oven interior means the turkey goes into a clean oven instead of one house cleaning services that smokes from last year's spills. A clean refrigerator interior makes room for all the extra food. Cleaning light fixtures brightens the dining room, and washing walls and woodwork removes the scuffs and fingerprints that guests notice in hallways and entryways.

The Happy Housekeepers | 5145 Starkey Rd, Roanoke, VA 24018 | (540) 774-4299

Timing matters. Many families schedule a deep clean the week before Thanksgiving, then a lighter visit before Christmas or New Year. Others book a cleaning right after the holidays to clear away pine needles, wrapping paper bits and the general chaos of a full house. Because calendars fill quickly in November and December, booking early is the smart move.

Recurring customers have an advantage here, since their homes are already in good shape and a holiday visit can focus on extras. One-time customers are welcome too, and many start with a holiday clean and decide afterward to keep a weekly, bi-weekly or monthly plan.

The Happy Housekeepers is licensed, bonded and insured, staff are bonded and insured by the company and the business displays a BBB blue seal. You can be out shopping or picking up relatives from the airport while the crew works.
