Southwest Roanoke and the adjoining parts of Roanoke County are home to some of the valley's best-loved neighborhoods. From the tree-lined streets of Grandin Village and Raleigh Court to the established subdivisions of Cave Spring, Hunting Hills and Penn Forest, the area blends older character homes with newer family houses. The Happy Housekeepers is based right here, on Starkey Road, and has been providing a trusted cleaning service to southwest Roanoke since 1979.

Close to Home in Southwest Roanoke

Older homes in Grandin Village and Raleigh Court often have original hardwood floors, plaster walls, detailed trim and radiators, all of which need careful attention. Newer homes in Cave Spring and Hunting Hills tend to have open-plan kitchens, multiple bathrooms and large carpeted areas. The company's standard residential routine covers both, including dusting and polishing furniture, vacuuming carpets, mopping hard floors, full kitchen and bathroom cleanups and dusting window sills, baseboards, blinds and ceiling fans.

For homes with more character, specialized services help keep original features at their best. Wall and woodwork washing, light fixture cleaning, spring and fall cleanings, basement cleaning and cleaning inside ovens and refrigerators are all available. If your hardwood floors need a specific product, crews will use it at your request, and otherwise the company supplies everything needed.
