The Christmas Place announces the opening of its INN, Spring

The Christmas Place announces the opening of its INN, Spring 2007The Incredible Christmas Place at Bell Tower Square in Pigeon Forge,Tennessee is one of the countrys largest and most beautiful Christmas Villages! This family owned and daily-operated business is celebrating its 20th year and wants to thank its guests for the privilege of having served them. To celebrate this special occasion, the Christmas Place has announced the opening of a new property in Pigeon Forge in 2007, “The Inn at Christmas Place”, offering the same old world charm, elegance and customer service you have grown to love from the shops at Christmas Place.As always, the Christmas Place will have many new displays and attractions that make your visit to Christmas Place a memorable experience. For local HVAC repair Sacramento sacramento hvac contractor those that missed our little train that ran around the mezzanine it is back all spruced up and good as new! There will also be new train displays at the Toy and Train store for the enjoyment of our guests.Our two custom service areas Personalizing and Floral will be bigger to serve you better in 2006! The Floral Department has been expanded and we are currently creating a Personalizing Emporium that will have the ability to embroider stockings, handbags, etc.
