Step 1: Meeting the Prerequisites

Before engaging with a Hungarian driving license company, applicants must ensure they meet particular legal and medical requirements set by the Hungarian government.

Fundamental Requirements:

- Age Limits: Varies by category (e.g., 17 years old for a standard B-category cars and truck license).
- Residency: Non-Hungarian people need to hold a legitimate Hungarian house authorization and have resided in the country for a minimum of 185 days within a calendar year.
- Medical Fitness: A compulsory medical checkup by a regional family doctor (háziorvos) or occupational health doctor to protect a Medical Certificate (Orvosi Alkalmassági Igazolás).

Action 2: Choosing a Driving School (Autósiskola)

While the government problems the actual license, individuals need to initially finish their training through a licensed driving school. For expats residing in Hungary, discovering a provider that uses English-language courses is paramount.

What to Look for in a Driving School:

- Accreditation: Ensure the school is officially registered with the Transport and Technical Examination Center (KAV).
- Language Support: Many schools in Budapest use English-language theory classes and multilingual trainers.
- Transparent Pricing: Look out for concealed charges relating to practical lessons, test administration, and fuel surcharges.

Step 3: The Training and Examination Process

The journey to obtaining a Hungarian driver's license includes a structured pipeline supervised by the driving school and the screening authority (KAV).

1. Theoretical Training and Exam

- Coursework: A minimum of 28 hours of classroom or online guideline covering traffic guidelines, road indications, and vehicle mechanics.
- The Exam: A computerized multiple-choice test carried out at a KAV screening center. It is offered in Hungarian, English, and German.

2. Practical Training (Behind-the-Wheel)

- Basic Driving Skills (Off-road/ Tanpálya): Learning car control, parking maneuvers, and reversing in a regulated environment.
- Traffic Driving: A minimum requirement of 29 hours (covering at least 580 kilometers) driven on public roadways under the guidance of a qualified trainer.
- First Aid Course: A compulsory certification course and test administered by the Hungarian Red Cross (Magyar Vöröskereszt), unless the applicant holds an exempt medical degree.

3. The Practical Road Test

When the trainer clears the candidate and the emergency treatment certificate is secured, the last useful examination is reserved through the driving school by means of KAV. An official state inspector will assess the prospect's driving proficiency throughout a 50-minute on-road test.

Step 4: Finalizing the License at the Kormányablak

Upon effectively passing the useful examination, KAV publishes the results to the central national computer registry system. The digital record is upgraded within a few company days, permitting the candidate to visit their regional Kormányablak (Government Window) to request the physical plastic card.

Files Required at the Kormányablak:

- Valid Passport or Hungarian ID Card (Személyi Igazolvány).
- Hungarian Address Card (Lakcímkártya).

- Residence Permit (for non-EU/EEA nationals).
- Medical Certificate of Fitness.
- Emergency Treatment Certificate (or comparable qualification).
- Evidence of payment for the administrative issuance cost.
