The Regulatory Body

The industry is managed by the Betting Control and Licensing Board (BCLB) under the Betting, Lotteries and Gaming Act. The BCLB is accountable for:

- Issuing licenses to legal wagering and casino operators.
- Making sure that games are fair and make use of qualified Random Number Generators (RNGs).
- Tracking advertising practices to prevent targeting minors.
- Enforcing tax compliance within the sector.

Gamers are highly advised to confirm that any online casino or wagering website they use holds a legitimate BCLB license to ensure the security of their funds and personal data.

Tips for Responsible Gambling

While casino games are created to be entertaining, they carry fundamental financial risks. To ensure betting stays a fun pastime instead of a problem, gamers should follow these standards:

- Set a Budget: Decide how much cash you can manage to lose before you start playing, and never go beyond that limit.
- Never Chase Losses: Accepting a loss becomes part of the game. Trying to win back lost money normally leads to larger financial trouble.
- Treat It as Entertainment: View money invested in casino games as the expense of entertainment, just like purchasing a ticket to a film or a football match.
- Know When to Stop: Take routine breaks and prevent playing when feeling psychological, stressed out, or under the influence of alcohol.
- Use Self-Exclusion Tools: Most credible Kenyan online platforms use tools that allow gamers to temporarily or permanently lock their accounts if they feel their gaming is leaving hand.
